

IT CAN BE DONE

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

Grapes for sale at the Vineyard.

Raymond Lewis was a Hunnewell visitor Sunday.

D. R. Campbell went to Leota, Kansas, Tuesday.

Miss Evodia Gentry was a Hannibal visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Jasper Henderson was a Shelbyna visitor Monday.

Mrs. G. W. Tompkins went to Quincy Monday for a short visit.

Miss Virgie Nolen is the guest of friends at Rensselaer this week.

Miss Alice Hoare returned home Monday after a pleasant visit in Moberly.

Mrs. Mary Rouse went to Polo Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. T. P. Middleton.

Miss Hattie Headricks went to Lakenan Friday to visit relatives several days.

Mrs. Joe Ryan and children are the guests of relatives near Hunnewell this week.

Homer Bell, of St. Louis, came Monday to visit relatives and friends in this city.

Miss Bertha Jaeger went to Quincy Monday to spend several days with Mrs. Ralph Garlic.

Mrs. William, of Kansas City, is the guest of her sons R. F. and J. in this city.

Miss Virginia White, of Palmyra, is the guest of Misses Ruth and Mary Kern near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Will James and children are the guests of relatives in Stoutsville this week.

Misses Florence and Blanche Norman, of Moberly, are the guests of their aunt, Mrs. H. Plaeger.

Mrs. E. F. Webb and son, William, of Hannibal were the guests of J. C. McAtee and wife over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Ledford, of Hannibal were the guests of W. B. Spalding and family over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lowe and Mrs. Sam Lowe, of Hannibal, are the guests of friends in this city.

Miss Myrtle Threlkeld, of Shelbyna was the guest of Miss Beulah Simms from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Mat Barron and two children were in this city Monday enroute to Stoutsville to visit her mother Mrs. H. Vaughn.

Miss Irene Hamilton, of Clarence who has been visiting relatives and friends in this city returned to her home Sunday.

Miss Louise Mahoney, of Hannibal who has been the guest of Gene Madden and family returned to her home Monday.

Miss Lillie Booth, of Camp Point, Ill., who has been conducting a kindergarten at this place returned to her home Friday.

Romer Starrett, relief operator for the Katy who has been doing relief work at McBaine, Mo., for several days returned home Wednesday.

Judge Ragland, wife and son Reginald, of Paris, motored to Monroe City Saturday and visited the family of W. G. Williamson over Sunday.

Dr. Hornback Oculist and Aurist Hannibal, Mo.

Miss Monica Lee was the guest of friends at Ely several days last week.

Mrs. E. E. Friday, of Macomb, Illinois, is the guest of relatives near this city.

Louis Lear, of Kansas City, came Saturday to visit his brother, Henry Lear and family.

Miss Mae Mc Allister who has been in St. Louis the past week returned home Monday.

Miss Ruth Mc Nulty, of Shelbyville is visiting her uncle Thomas Conboy near this city.

Mrs. J. G. Thornburg, of Palmyra, was the guest of her son, W. W. Tait, part of last week.

Mrs. R. O. Cranston and children have been the guests of relatives at Leonard the past few days.

Miss Hazel Green went to Shelbyna Tuesday for a weeks visit with her uncle in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Proctor went to Withers Mill Saturday to spend several days with relatives there.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the First Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Bert Bull Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jackson and two children spent Saturday and Sunday with C. E. Smith and wife at Palmyra.

Mrs. J. A. Jackson and daughter, Bertha, who has been visiting at Madison, returned to their home in this city Friday.

Misses Bess Montgomery and Cecelia Yates went to Palmyra Friday to visit Misses Ruth and Bernadette Jacobi.

Miss Wilma King returned to her home in Shelbyna Saturday after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Berlin.

Mrs. Oscar Pike and little son, Jack, of Quincy, came Tuesday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hays.

Sunday at 2:30 at the Gem, Laura Sawyer, the moving picture star, in "An Hour Before Dawn," in four acts. 5c and 10c.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Griffith and two children, of Hannibal, are the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Griffith near this city.

Miss Goldie Frye, of St. Joseph, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dick Sims near Indian Creek, returned to her home Saturday.

Famous Players present Laura Sawyer in "An Hour Before Dawn," a beautiful and very interesting picture in four acts at the Gem, Sunday, August 22. 5c and 10c.

Mrs. John Bamber and Miss Gertrude Bamber, of Quincy, and Mrs. Lizzie Wells, of Palmyra, were the guests of J. F. Renshaw and family from Friday until Monday.

Misses Beulah Simms, Myrtle Threlkeld, Zilpha Lasley and Messrs Will Buckman, Gus Adam, and Mart Seward motored to Palmyra Sunday and visited friends in that place.

Mrs. Charles Buckman went to Woodland Tuesday to visit her sister from there she is going to Palmyra for a visit with her parents. She was accompanied by her sister, Edith McClintic, who has been visiting here.

Mrs. Thiehoff Surprised.

A friend of Mrs. S. B. Thiehoff found out that Tuesday was the anniversary of her birth so she quietly planned a surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Thiehoff went out for an hour in the early part of the evening and during their absence the members of her Sunday school class and the officers of the Epworth League assembled and a very pleasant social evening was spent.

That Mrs. Thiehoff have many more birthdays and that they might be present at the celebration was the wish of all present.

Reed in Shelbyna.

James A. Reed will speak at the fair grounds in Shelbyna, Friday afternoon, September 3rd. It is conceded that Mr. Reed is one of the ablest men in the U. S. Senate and there is no doubt that he will be re-elected next year.

He will also speak at the Old Settlers' picnic in Shelbyville, September 11. Remember that Senator Reed ranks first in Missouri as an orator and to miss hearing him will be to miss a treat.

Six Baptized.

The Penecostal workers, a religious band who have been holding services in the North Park for several weeks, had a baptizing at the mill pond Sunday morning. Mrs. E. H. Griffin and daughter, Miss Anna, Miss Willie Gardanier, Thos. Aylor and A. Furniss of this city, and Miss Christine King, who is visiting here from Mississippi received the sacrament of baptism. We understand there are other converts but these have been baptized by immersion in the past.

For Rent—Good 5 room house, plenty of ground. Apply to W. S. Woodson. 8-26

J. W. Jarman and wife departed yesterday for a visit with friends at Berlin, Maryland.

M. D. Boucher and wife have returned from Columbia where they spent the summer.

Mrs. B. S. Fowler and daughter-in-law Mrs. W. R. Fowler were shopping in Quincy Wednesday.

For Sale—A farm just outside of corporation, will be sold cheap and good terms.—Lewis Lundburg. tf

Mrs. L. A. Kelly and son Johnnie went to Woodland Wednesday to spend several days with relatives.

D. R. Campbell left Monday for Selkirk, Kans., where he will transact business for a week or ten days.

Misses Effie Hays and Rose Cosgrove, of Hannibal, are the guests of relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Ida Huser and little grandson, Denie Evans have been the recent guest of her brother George Kirby and wife.

Mrs. G. A. Hawkins and daughter Mrs. E. J. Glasgow, of Kansas City, come Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Cora Umstadd.

Misses Bessie, Frances, Katherine and Master Warren Henderson left Tuesday night for Galesburg, Manmouth and Chicago. They expect to be gone several weeks.

Mrs. O. R. Emerson and guests Mrs. B. T. Smeathers and daughter Marjorie, of Decatur, Ill., spent part of the week near Hunnewell with Mark Smith and wife.

Arsnoe.

Mrs. Mary E. Arsnoe was born in New York State, Sept. 24, 1837. With her parents she moved to Chicago, Ill., and during the Chicago fire they moved to Michigan. In 1884 she moved to Missouri where she lived until her death Aug 13, 1915.

While in Michigan her first husband passed away and she married J. W. Arsnoe Oct. 21, 1879. To the first union one child was born, Mrs. French, Seattle, Wash. To the second union three children were born, all of whom are dead. Mr. Arsnoe died July 23, 1914, after his death she moved with her sister, Mrs. Allen of Monroe City and lived with her until her death.

She was a member of the Church at Hunnewell and lived as near right as she knew how. Her dying scene was a happy one, singing one verse of Jesus lover of my Soul, as she was passing out.

She was in poor health a number of years and since July has been failing rapidly. She leaves one sister, one child, a number of grand children and relatives to mourn her loss.

Hutts

John R. Hutts was born in Calloway County, Mo., Aug. 11, 1849 and died in Monroe City Aug. 15, 1915.

Mr. Hutts, wife and son, Elmer moved to this city a few months ago from Mokane, Mo.

Mr. Hutts had been ill for some time, suffering from kidney trouble which caused his death.

The wife and son left Tuesday evening with the remains. The funeral was held in Mokane yesterday. There were several other children who were to meet them at that city.

Indian Creek Picnic.

Tuesday was the day for the annual picnic at Indian Creek. Quite a number was there for dinner and there is no doubt that many more would have been there had the weather been more favorable.

They could seat about 100 at a time and the tables were filled several times.

The Monroe High School Orchestra furnished the music and there were various amusements on the ground.

Indian Creek is famed for its famed splendid dinners and Tuesday did not prove an exception.

The rain put an end to the picnic early in the afternoon.

Well Known Editor Retires.

B. F. Blanton founder and for 42 years editor, of the Paris Appeal announced in that paper last week that he had disposed of his interests to his son, H. J. Blanton and will retire from active service.

Mr. Blanton is one of the best known and most popular newspaper men in Missouri and has accomplished much good during these past years.

His successor, who had his training under such a splendid instructor has been connected with the paper for years and will continue the good work commenced almost a half century ago.

W. S. Corder, wife and brother, Juel left Friday the 13th for Denver, Colo., where they will make their home if they like the country and the climate agrees with them. They will be missed by their many friends in this community.

Announce Wedding and Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Longmire have within the past week received cards from Knik, Alaska announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Emerelda Longmire to P. J. McDonald on the 22nd of July. The young people went at once to Anchorage, a port on Cook Inlet. This is where the new government railroad begins. It is a town of 2500 inhabitants, all living in tents. There are now 100 houses being constructed. The young couple have purchased lots and will build at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Longmire also announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Longmire to Rev. R. Stanley Johnson, of Coldwater, Ohio. The wedding is to be in December.

Both young ladies are talented and accomplished. They have lived near this city almost all their lives and have a host of friends who will join the Democrat in extending best wishes.

Surprised.

Saturday, Aug the 14 was Jasper Henderson's 61st birthday and his wife gave him a delightful surprise. She invited eleven guests to dinner. It has been Mr. Henderson's custom during the summer to take a little nap and when he awoke his guests had assembled on the porch. Mrs. Henderson cannot be excelled in the culinary art and the dinner could not be surpassed. Those present were: Dr. W. B. A. McNutt, J. L. Lyon, Robt. Meriwether, A. M. Vaughn, J. J. Brown, J. G. Fuqua, C. C. Lewis, R. L. Wilson, J. H. Fletcher, W. W. Handley, W. R. P. Jackson.

Business Ability Recognized.

C. L. Carpenter, who has been traveling for the Williamson Produce Company, of Quincy, for the past two or three years has been offered the position of manager of the house. He has accepted the place and will move to that city the first of September. Mr. Carpenter is a splendid business man and his ability has been recognized by his employers. The family has a large number of friends both in church and social circles and will be greatly missed here.

Painful Accident.

J. D. Rohr met with a painful accident Sunday while helping tow an auto into the city. In going down a hill the brake in the second car failed to work and it ran close enough to the first car to make the rope slack and one of the front wheels passed over in. The driver of the first car realizing the second was too close, speeded up and the rope tightened, throwing Mr. Rohr out and breaking his arm.

Window Broken.

Early yesterday morning the glass in the west window of Mrs. Sophia Moessner's restaurant was found broken. While the opening was not large, a small person could have squeezed through. Some of the glass on the inside was smeared with blood. Some tobacco and fruit was missing. While the loss was not great, it is hard to believe that any one would steal from an old lady more than 70 years of age who works as hard as Mrs. Moessner does to make her living.

Mrs. Joe Hickman and daughter Miss Libby were Quincy visitors Wednesday.